

Green Asks Merger Of U.S. Labor Unions

Says Lewis' Plan Won't Work Now

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP) The AFL high command said today that John L. Lewis' plan for a $2,500,000-a-week war chest to finance the great steel strike is "impossible and impracticable" while union labor is split into rival camps.

AFL President Green called instead for a real merger of AFL, CIO, and the United Mine Workers to mobilize their economic power.

Lewis had proposed that nine big AFL unions and his own UMW contribute $250,000 a week each to help win the steel strike being led by CIO president Philip Murray.

In a polite reply to Lewis today, Green disposed of the plan, so far as the AFL is concerned, by saying that nine AFL unions would each have to decide such a question for itself. He explained that they are self-governing.

He also inquired of Lewis whether Murray, who is head of the steel workers union as well as the CIO chief, had asked for such financial assistance. Green said he had never heard of such a request.

Following Lewis' letter to Green, Murray came out for a common fight by all labor, and said his striking steel workers would be willing to lend aid to Lewis' striking coal miners.

Green, in his letter to Lewis, said there was a "crying need" for a united labor movement. Through it, he said, the "economic power of all the workers of the nation could be mobilized."

Resource Pool Impossible
"The pooling of labor's resources while divided, as it is today, is impossible and impracticable," he said "at best it would be but a shadow without substance."

The cross currents of division, competition and discord which run through the labor movement of our nation at the present time make it increasingly difficult for workers to achieve their commendable aims, purposes and objectives.

"I have appealed repeatedly over all the years since division took place within the ranks of labor to the workers of the nation to return to the house of labor where they could live together, plan together, work together and unite together in the promotion of a common purpose. I hope and trust that the day will come ere long when a favorable response will be made to this appeal."

Report Two Large Nationalist Ports Taken By Commies

Hong Kong, Tuesday, Oct. 18.—(AP) The pro-communist press today reported communist occupation of Amoy and Swatow, the two largest nationalist holdout ports on the southeast China mainland.

Dispatches said both cities were taken by the Reds yesterday. Swatow is in Kwangtung province 180 miles northeast of Hong Kong. Amoy is 130 miles farther northeast in Fukien province.

A report to the newspaper Kung Pao said the nationalists had confirmed communist occupation of the island of Amoy. This big port opposite the nationalists' bastion of Formosa has been under Red assault for weeks.

The nationalist Central News Agency said Sunday the Reds had succeeded in making landings on the island.

Telegraphic connections between Hong Kong and Amoy were cut at noon yesterday. This would seem to bear out the occupation report.

Abandoned Lumber Ship Sinks After Fire Sweeps Her

Seattle, Oct. 17.—(AP) The abandoned lumber ship Salina Cruz, gutted by its flaming cargo, rolled over and sank at 5:35 p.m. (PST) today in the wind-chopped Pacific 180 miles west of Grays Harbor, Wash.

Seventeen crewmen, who took to lifeboats this morning, were reported by the coast guard to be weathering a briskly increasing blow while awaiting rescue.

The coast guard said the Fish and Wildlife Service vessel Black Douglas is scheduled to reach the men early tonight.

The crewmen were reported bailing steadily but were believed in no immediate danger.

Senators Reject House Plan For Farm Prices

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP) Senate conferees on disputed farm legislation were reported tonight to have rejected a House compromise which would have put flexible price supports into effect after two more years of the present 90 percent level.

A conference committee member said the senators voted four to three against the proposal.

The committee settled back into its tight deadlock on the legislation which is one of the biggest stumbling blocks to adjournment of congress. Discussions were to continue.

The rejected compromise would have extended for two years the war-time supports, which stand at 90 percent of parity for most major crops. At the end of 1951 the Senate bill's sliding scale of price, 90 to 75 percent, would have gone into effect, a committee member explained.

After a long session, Rep. Cooley (D-Mo.), chairman of the House agricultural committee, said that "the Senate has not made one single concession."

Chairman of the Senate agricultural committee, said he was more hopeful then he has been because both sides had three times chosen to stick it out rather than report failure.

House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) told reporters, however, there was talk that the two sides were far apart and there was some doubt they could get together.

Asked if President Truman at his conference with democratic congress leaders today had said what kind of farm bill he wants, Rayburn said no, but added: "He wants 90 percent; he has always wanted 90 percent. He made a campaign on that."

The Rayburn reference was to the big argument at what percentage of parity to support the prices of five basic commodities, cotton, wheat, corn, rice, and peanuts. The House passed a one-year bill setting it at 90 percent of parity; continuing the present wartime scale through 1950.

Greek Rebels Call Off Civil War

Athens, Greece, Oct. 17.—(AP) Greece's communist rebels announced they were calling off the civil war but government chiefs today said the pronouncement was only to sugar coat defeat.

Authoritative sources speculated that if it with a capital "T"—the guerrillas really are ending their fight against Greece they probably will be turned against Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

Could Pass As Yugos
A veteran observer of the civil war pointed out that more than 50 percent of the guerrillas are from Greek Macedonia and could easily be masqueraded as Yugoslav Macedonians in warfare against Tito.

A Greek cabinet member reported only a few days ago that several thousand Greek guerrillas were about to be shifted from their old base in isolated Albania to Bulgaria on Tito's eastern flank. Most authoritative reports today still place more than 8,000 of the guerrillas in Albania, however.

Reports reached the U. S. state department in Washington that the Soviet satellites, with Moscow backing, are about ready to open a guerrilla campaign against Yugoslavia on the model of the three and a half year war against the Athens government. Such a campaign would call for capture of a Yugoslav border town to be proclaimed the capital of a "free Yugoslavia." But Marshal Tito has an army of about 600,000 men, three times that of Greece.

No Firm Evidence
State department officials said the reports were backed by no firm evidence and might be only a part of the war of nerves against Tito. On the other hand, French sources in London reported that the Greek guerrillas soon may be moved from Albania to Czechoslovakia as assurance they will not renew the war against Greece. The informants said they assumed Russia was behind the move and if it takes place it would provide some evidence that the communists seriously want a settlement with Greece. France is the only large western power with a diplomatic mission in Albania.

Nehru Says India Will Stay Clear In War Of Nerves

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP) India's prime minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, declared in a foreign policy speech tonight his country intends to steer a middle course, clear of entanglement in the cold war.

He warned, however, that India is willing to fight "when man's liberty or peace is in danger" because "neutrality, then, will be a betrayal of what we have fought for and stand for."

He called upon the world to talk less of war, to think more of peace, and how to attain it, and admonish "The very process of marshalling of the world into two hostile camps precipitates the conflict which it is sought to avoid."

The Indian statesman's views were given in an address marking ceremonies at which Columbia University bestowed on him an honorary doctorate of laws degree.

Issues Injunction
Delaying Chicago
Transit Rate Hike
Chicago, Oct. 17.—(AP) Circuit Judge Elmer J. Schnackenberg today issued a temporary injunction preventing the Chicago Transit Authority from putting into effect its new two-cent fare increases.

The CTA, a publicly owned body, operates street cars, the subways and elevated system and most of the busses in the city and some of suburbs.

Judge Schnackenberg found CTA violated a section of the Metropolitan Transit Authority act which provides that ordinances involving penalties cannot become effective until ten days after publication.

On Oct. 13, the CTA ordered street car fares increased from 13 to 15 cents, and the elevated, subway and express bus fares upped from 15 to 17 cents. The order went into effect last Saturday.

The Chicago Motor Coach Co. busses were not involved.

Judge Schnackenberg said the temporary injunction will remain in force until the ordinance requirements are met. He said he would set a date for a hearing on the permanent injunction tomorrow.

Supreme Court Upholds Contempt Convictions Of 3 Red Leaders

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP) The supreme court today upheld Judge Harold R. Medina's action in jailing three red leaders for contempt during the turbulent New York trial that led to conviction of 11 top U. S. communists.

The high court acted indirectly. By a 7 to 1 vote it refused to hear appeals by the trio. The brief order gave no reasons for the decision.

Justice Black dissented, holding that the case should be reviewed. Justice Douglas, recuperating from injuries he received in a riding accident Oct. 2, took no part in the decision.

The 11 communist party leaders were convicted by a jury in Medina's court last Friday of conspiracy to advocate forcible overthrow of the government. They face possible sentences up to 10 years in prison plus fines of $10,000 each.

Last summer Judge Medina ordered three of the leaders jailed for the duration of the nine-months-long trial. They are Gus Hall, Ohio state communist chairman; Henry Winston, organizational secretary; and Gilbert Green, Illinois chairman.

Hall and Winston were punished for creating a disturbance in the court room. Green was jailed after he said to the judge: "I thought you were going to give us a chance to prove our case."

The three argued, in their appeal to the supreme court, that the judge's action was designed "to pressure the petitioners, on pain of continued imprisonment, to hurry their defense to a close."

Immediately after last Friday's verdict, Judge Medina ordered a fourth defendant, Eugene Dennis, and five defense lawyers to be jailed for criminal contempt. They announced they plan to file appeals similar to those which the court rejected today.

Congressmen Agree On 58 Groups For U.S. Air Force

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP) Advocates of a bigger air force won a major victory tonight as senators who had been holding out for 48 air groups gave in at last to House demands that congress vote money for 58.

The long-standing deadlock had been one of the major obstacles to early adjournment of Congress. Differences between Senate and House had blocked approval of a fifteen billion dollar bill to finance the armed services for this year.

Must Be Approved
The senators' capitulation to House demands still must be approved by the full Senate and House. Differences between the two branches have held up approval of funds for the armed forces for this year.

Mr. Truman had sided with the Senate in the dispute over air force funds.

Twice last week he said that 48 groups were enough, and that there was no need to spend the $741,386,000 additional necessary to build the force up to 58 groups.

An air force group varies in size according to the type of planes in it. A group of B-36 bombers has 30 planes; one of fighters has 75.

The amount of money which was in dispute is estimated to provide an added 400 combat planes of all types for the air force.

The break came shortly after the Senate appropriations committee approved the full $1,514,010,000 so human administration asked to stop re-arm non-communist nations. Senate passage is expected. The House has already voted a similar sum.

In addition to approving the foreign arms program money, the Senate committee okayed funds to build a radar screen around the United States, and for military construction in Alaska and Okinawa.

The vast radar screen—a system of mechanical eyes watching the skies for enemy planes—would cost millions. The committee voted $17,000,000 in cash and $33,000,000 in contract authority for the first year's construction.

The Alaska-Okinawa construction program, which has House approval, would cost $157,611,700.

The Senate-House stalemate over air force funds had gone to extraordinary lengths.

Appropriations bills are supposed to be passed by July 1, when the new fiscal year begins. Failure to agree had necessitated four emergency extensions of spending authority for the armed forces.

Baby Is Born 400
Miles Out Over
Ocean In Airliner
Shannon Airport, Ireland, Oct. 17.—(AP) The stork won and a 4-pound American was born today in an airliner 19,000 feet up and 400 miles out over the Atlantic.

Tonight he and his 20-year-old mother, a Yugoslav-born GI bride, were getting along fine in the heart of Ireland's County Clare.

The newborn is the son of U. S. Air Force Sgt. James C. Parker of Alderson, W. Va., and his wife Danika.

Hero and heroine of the air delivery were the 44-year-old physician-passenger Dr. Frederick Henschel of New York, and the airliner stewardess, 29-year-old Mary Jane Hinkley of Millville, N. J., who helped the new arrival into the world.

Said Mary Jane: "It went off easy as pie."

The surprised mother commented: "I hadn't expected the baby for another month and a half."

The father, waiting at Rhein-Main airport, Germany for the plane to complete its mission, told reporters, "gosh, this floors me."

The child was born in the crew's compartment of the American Overseas Airlines' "Flagship Scotland," enroute from New York to Frankfurt, while most of the 43 passengers dozed.

Tries To Kill Self
Twice Over Love;
Will Try Again
Omaha, Oct. 17.—(AP) A 17-year-old airman who made two futile attempts to end it all for love, vowed today he'd try it again.

He is Harry F. Gates of Knoxville, Tenn., who works in the food service squadron at Offutt Air Force base.

His 15-year-old former girl friend, Doris Artor, asserted Harry wanted her to go steady and would get jealous when she had dates with boys at North High school.

Doris said that last night she told Harry she thought they should break it all up.

The young airman declared he was going to kill himself, she said, and promptly dashed in front of a car. "The driver's reflexes were too fast and he stopped before striking the youth."

Gates dusted himself off and walked back to Doris.

"Going to give me another chance?"

"No," Doris replied.

Gates turned again and although Doris grasped at his clothes, he managed to get into the path of another auto which nudged him at about three miles per hour.

WE CAN'T STOP OUR EFFORTS TO DEFEAT RED TACTICS IN GERMANY

The West German state sponsored by the three western powers now has a Soviet-supported eastern competitor. Its creation is Russia's newest move in the cold war, but it has not struck fear in western hearts.

It is a flat admission that for a time at least the Russians have given up hope of gaining control of all Germany. They have acknowledged that the government of the western zones is too strong to be pushed aside easily.

This is no small admission. The eastern zone controlled by the Soviet Union is largely agricultural and has a population of about 19,000,000. Some 45,000,000 people and most of Germany's industry are concentrated in the West German Republic.

Since the close of World War II Russia has held a tight grip on the east German sector. Thus to formalize this control by establishing an East German Republic is to startle nobody.

Furthermore, the western powers apparently do not intend to let the move go unchallenged. Officials have hinted that the three nations will very likely counter the Soviet action by incorporating the western areas of Berlin into the general western zone. This would tend to strengthen western Berlin against the gnawing economic difficulties now handicapping the city.

Russia naturally is endeavoring to put the brightest possible face on its maneuver. It proclaims the new government as a provisional "all-German" state, throwing out broad hints that representatives from western sectors will somehow be chosen to make the new eastern parliament actually a national rather than regional affair.

Moscow-trained German leaders in the Soviet zone call for liquidation of the West German state, the re-establishment of political and economic unity in the country and the designating of Berlin as the "national" capital.

Meantime, Russian publications suggest that the Soviet Union may recognize the new regime as the only true German government, may sign a separate peace treaty with it and withdraw Russian troops from eastern Germany territory.

Moscow has talked many times of such moves, hoping always to awaken support for Russia in the minds of Germans. Up to now the appeals have fallen on deaf ears. Western authorities do not believe these latest hints, even if they are translated into reality, will make a deep impression on the stubborn Germans.

What Russia can get out of eastern Germany she is already getting. No new advantage is likely to come to her as result of this move.

Nor are the western powers liable to lose ground in the German phase of the cold war so long as they continue to strive earnestly for a unified policy aimed at leading Germany gradually but surely toward genuine political democracy and a healthy economy.

Progress thus far has been moderately good. But there can be no slackening of effort, for fear that the Germans, however much they seem to hate their Russian neighbors, will some day yield to their appeals as the only positive answer they can see to economic and political chaos.

Curing Shyness Through The Feet

By Hal Boyle

New York—(AP)—Many people get a feeling of inferiority today by lying down on a psychiatrist's couch.

And for $15 an hour—more or less—they talk away their troubles.

He began as a youthful $5 a week instructor in a dime-a-dance hall. Today, rich and famous, he operates a $22,000,000 annual dance business.

In the last 37 years he has managed to cure practically everybody's shyness except his own. "I figure in that time we have taught about 6,000,000 people to dance," he said the other day, sipping rather dolefully from a can of apricot juice. "We've enrolled about 2,000,000 in our studios, 3,000,000 by mail, and about 1,000,000 by radio."

It has been some years since Murray had to wear out his own dancing pumps steering satchel-footed pupils around the floor. The Murray system now has about 194 affiliated studios of the dance across the nation. They employ some 5,000 teachers.

The cathedral of this rumba and waltz empire is a huge studio off Madison avenue in mid-Manhattan that grosses $1,200,000 annually. Naturally Murray has his office here.

"My job is looking after the decorating and the housecleaning," he said. "My wife does the rest."

Murray, who says he was gawky and shy himself as a boy, still appears mildly uncomfortable whenever he is asked a question. Pert Mrs. Murray, a dark slim little woman of tremendous energy, has the personality of the pair.

One of Mrs. Murray's chores before getting to the office is to bake honey cakes and brownies for her husband.

"He has a sweet tooth—he lives on candy bars and ice cream," she laughed. "He is also a health nut. Keeps vitamin pills in the ice box, and requires the teachers to take flu shots."

He has a deep knowledge of the psychology of shy people, and has used it to great advantage in his advertising. One example, his studio has an entrance through a regular office building—so students can come and go without letting the world know they are taking dancing lessons.

"Most of the adults who want to learn to dance are between 40 and 60," explained Mrs. Murray. "And 65 per cent of our pupils are men. The reason? Men study things—women don't. We're lazy."

The latest Murray gimmick is a lifetime course. Anyone who takes this $5,000 course of 1,000 hours can then return and dance free two hours a month for as long as his arches last. One Long Island school teacher is buying two—SHE JUST LOVES TO DANCE.

Judge Dismisses Shelton Complaint Against Harris
Fairfield, Ill., Oct. 17—(AP)—Charles (Blackie) Harris was cleared today of a charge that he tried to kill little Earl Shelton, nephew of three Shelton brothers who terrorized southern Illinois 20 years ago.

Police Magistrate Arch Hill called a preliminary hearing for 5:30 a. m. The first one called two weeks ago was postponed when little Earl sent word he had not sufficiently recovered from ten bullet wounds suffered September 8.

A crowd of about 300 gathered at the Wayne county court house to see the meeting of Harris and little Earl. Five state policemen were in the area although none is stationed there permanently.

Harris and little Earl did not show up. The magistrate waited for 30 minutes. Then he formally dismissed the charge, filed on little Earl's complaint, because of failure of the prosecuting witness to appear. There were no other known witnesses.

Neither little Earl, 33, nor Harris, 33, could be reached for comment.

Harris, an ex-convict and former Shelton henchman, was accused in Big Carl Shelton's ambush slaying two years ago but was exonerated by a grand jury. Harris has denied the wounding of little Earl.

Nab Pair Wanted For Bad Checks, Several Robberies
Chicago, Oct. 17—(AP)—Two Bureau county men were held without charge by police last night for questioning about several robberies and the passing of 40 worthless checks.

Detective Oliver Hodges said the man, Robert Waterman, 27, and Kenneth Cromwell, 17, both of Wayne, Ill., gave this account of their activities:

Waterman's restaurant business in Wyandot failed and the two came to Chicago. They ran out of money and robbed a south side gas station owner of $55.

Then they went to Troy Grove, La Salle county, where they broke into the Co-op Grain and Supply company. They took a supply of checks and a check writing machine.

Returning to Chicago, they decided they needed "identification" for check-writing and robbed Raymond Cavanah, a former FBI agent, of his wallet.

They made out the checks to Cavanah and then, using his credentials, cashed them in stores.

Waterman and Cromwell were caught when Hodges and another detective stopped them for questioning.

New York Stock Market

New York, Oct. 17.—(P)—A partial recovery cut extreme losses in the stock market today, but the list remained fractions to around 2 points lower.

CHICAGO GRAINS START, END WEAK

Chicago, Oct. 17.—(P)—Grains started weak and never recovered on the board of trade today. Wheat and soybeans lost the most ground while oats, aided by expected army buying of cash oats, managed to hold relatively steady.

A good part of the loss was made right at the start. Dealings were active. After that, the market tried a rally but it never picked up much speed. Turnover sagged after the first 30 minutes of dealings. Traders awaited congressional action on new farm legislation.

Receipts were: wheat 15 cars, corn 394, oats 16, rye 4, barley 36, soybeans 132.

Wheat closed 1-1/4 lower, December $2.12 1/4, corn was 1-1/4 lower, December $1.15 1/4, oats were unchanged to 1/4 lower, December 68, rye was 11-3/4 lower, December $1.45 1/4, soybeans were 3 to 2 cents lower, November $2.28-2.28 1/2, and land was 15 to 20 cents a hundred pounds lower, October $11.52.

Markets At A Glance

Bonds—Irrregular; changes narrow.

Cotton—Quiet; local selling and hedging.

Corn—Easy with wheat.

Oats—Steady; army buying cash oats.

Hogs—Mostly 25c lower; top $18.15.

Cattle—Steady to 25 higher; steer top $36.00.

Katherine Waters Becomes Bride Of William B. Fisher

Katherine Lucille Waters and William Bernard Fisher were united in marriage in a single ring ceremony which took place at the home of the bride's brother, George W. Waters, 477 South East street.

The bride is the daughter of Leslie Waters of this city and the late Mrs. Essie Waters. Mr. Fisher is the son of John Henry Fisher of Chicago and Mrs. Mary Ellen Fisher of Winchester.

The rites were performed by Rev. Lloyd Spencer of Roodhouse at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Ferns and cut flowers decorated the home.

The attendants were Miss Christine Marie Waters, sister of the bride, maid of honor, and Track Fisher, best man.

The bride was attired in a gown colored steel, with which she wore navy accessories, and a cascade of white roses. Her only jewelry was pearls, given her by the bridegroom. A floral crepe dress with coral accessories was worn by the maid of honor. Her corsage was white roses. The bridegroom's mother wore gray, with matching accessories and a cascade of red roses.

A reception for relatives and close friends was held at the Waters home following the ceremony. The couple then left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home at 909 South Main street.

Mrs. Fisher is employed at Passaic hospital. Her husband is employed at the Straus Crossing Grain Company.

Charge American Bowling Congress Unfair To Negroes

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP)—CIO General Counsel Arthur J. Goldberg said today he expects "prompt action" by Illinois authorities aimed at revoking the charter of the American bowling congress for alleged discrimination against Negroes.

Goldberg said he was not disturbed by the "no comment" attitude of Illinois officials following receipt of a CIO demand for court action.

"We expect them to do their duty," Goldberg told a reporter.

The laws of Illinois specifically provide for equality in civil rights and prohibit the state from giving sanction to an organization which by its by-laws promotes discrimination.

The CIO's demand for action, sent to Illinois officials yesterday, asserted that the ABC's constitution and by-laws restrict ABC bowling tournaments to teams of "the white male sex." The bowling congress is chartered under Illinois law.

Goldberg reiterated that unless Illinois authorities comply with the CIO request within 30 days, the union will itself file a suit in Chicago courts.

Mike Milligan Sees Trouble Ahead For His Pitt Eleven

Pittsburgh, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Pitt's once mighty Panthers today boasted four straight grid wins for the first time in 10 years but Coach Mike Milligan moaned "trouble, nothing but trouble."

The Panthers barely managed to subdue little Miami 35-26 and had a rough time with an aroused West Virginia eleven before finally winning 20-7 in the final half.

Before that it was Pitt 13, William and Mary 7; Pitt 16, Northwestern 7.

The Panthers tackle Indiana at Bloomington on Saturday.

"I anticipate a lot of trouble there," said Mike. They haven't won a game in their last 11 starts but there's always a first time.

"We weren't too sharp against Miami and we have a lot of work to do this week with our tackling dummy. We're improving game by game but we still have a lot of work to do."

Judge Upholds US Right To Limit Tuition Of Vets

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP)—A federal district judge has upheld the right of the government to limit the tuition that may be charged to veterans studying under the GI bill.

Judge Matthew F. McGuire of the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia made the ruling in two test cases.

In separate actions the Metropolitan Training Center, Inc., of New York City, and the Michigan Technical Institute, of Detroit, had asked for injunctions to prevent the veterans administration from enforcing a regulation it issued in July, 1948.

That regulation grew out of the GI bill's provision that payment for veterans' tuition under the measure shall be at "customary" rates.

The regulation pointed out that schools established after the GI bill became effective June 22, 1944, could not be considered as having customary tuition rates and therefore must be shown that tuition charges are fair and reasonable.

Captain Dear Cochran of the Greenfield Tigers is on his way to the state scoring title with a fine start of 82 points to his credit after five games. Coach Don Luketich states that his ace is "strong as a bull." Speed? He made his letter in the 220 yard dash last spring. He has plenty of drive and a hard man to tackle as rival teams will tell after meeting him. Cochran has a twin brother on the second team, Gene, who plays fullback. Greenfield usually runs its plays off a split T formation, frequently with a man in motion. The Greenfield lads are out for practice every afternoon from 3 to 3:55 p.m. Three-fourths of the players are farm boys and the school bus waits to take them home.

Jerseyville is the team to beat in the conference race with three wins and none lost at this time. The Win-Co-Hi Wildcats of Coach E. W. Posey will try to stop the big crew from Jerseyville next Friday night at Winchester.

Bob Graner, leading Ivy scorer from Carrollton, will be a guest of Illinois College's popular mascot, Al Miller, next Saturday afternoon for the Homecoming game with McKendree college. Two other Hawks will accompany Graner. Jim Ridings and Dick Mehrhoff are also planning to attend as Blueboy guests.

Sarah Churchill Announces She Will Be Wed Today

Sea Island, Ga., Oct. 17.—(AP)—A British society photographer, Anthony Beauchamp, and Miss Sarah Churchill, daughter of Britain's wartime prime minister, announced today they will be married tomorrow.

The couple said they had been secretly engaged for a week and that they had the approval of her parents.

Beauchamp, 32, said he arrived in this country three weeks ago after conferring with former Prime Minister Winston Churchill and obtaining his endorsement of the proposal.

The 34-year-old Miss Churchill, divorced from Vic Oliver in October, 1945, made her debut in this country last June.

She has been touring America in summer stock with the lead role in "Philadelphia Story."

The marriage will unite the children of a couple of well known artists—Churchill and Ernest Enslin.

The statesman father of Miss Churchill is noted for his diligence at pursuing his art work. Beauchamp's father lists himself as retired.

3 Adults Die, 2 Babies Missing In Airplane Crash

Provincetown, Mass., Oct. 17.—(AP) Three adults died and two babies are missing in the crash today of a small chartered plane into the sea off this resort town at tip of Cape Cod.

The dead were identified as pilot Daniel Lacey, 26, of Westwood, Mrs. Harold Keppel, about 30, wife of a New York Times photo-engraver, and Mrs. Edward S. Davies, about 40, of Provincetown.

Listed as missing are Mrs. Keppel's two children, Paul 2½, and Bruce, about one year.

The coast guard cutter Acushnet recovered the bodies of Lacey, Mrs. Keppel and Mrs. Davies about four miles off Cape Point. Crewmen aboard the cutter applied artificial respiration for more than three hours in unsuccessful efforts to revive the three victims.

Coast guard headquarters at Boston said the search would be resumed at dawn tomorrow.

HENRY FIELD, SEED COMPANY FOUNDER, DIES

Shenandoah, Ia., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Henry Field, 77, founder and president of the nationally known seed and nursery firm bearing his name and a pioneer in radio broadcasting, died at his home today of cancer.

The Henry Field Seed and Nursery company which Field started in 1899 was the country's largest retail mail order seed and nursery company. He issued his first mail order catalogue in 1899, writing it, setting it in type and printing it. The company now does $3,000,000 business annually.

Crimson Frish-Soph Eleven Blanks Havana

The Jacksonville high school junior Crimson Frish-Soph eleven blanked Havana through the third period. Conversion failed and the Crimson led 13-0.

Harvey Fearson scored his second and the final touchdown of the struggle when he hauled in a 10-yard pass from Dickerson, who was throwing out of punt formation on his own 20-yard marker, and galloped 70 yards to pay-dirt. The tally came early in the fourth period, giving the JHS yearlings a 19-0 winning margin.

The Jacksonville boys scored another touchdown in the waning minutes of action but had it called back because of a rule infraction.

Crimson linemen held the Havana ball-carriers to minus yardage the first half. The Ducks came through for two first downs after the intermission, both on penalties.

Weekend Marked By College Grid Upsets

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The old professor held his head in his hands. It was obvious he had a load on. On his mind, that is. Finally he looked up wearily to gaze at his Monday morning class of football coaches.

Old professor — Good morning, gentlemen. Or is it? I'm not sure of anything after the happening of last Saturday. Such do upset us. I even feel upset myself. Michigan—Southern Methodist — U.C.L.A. — Brown — Navy-Villanova. I never saw the like.

Wes Fesler, Ohio State—and I never in my life saw a more powerful football team than Minnesota. professor. It wasn't what they weighed, but how agile they were. On our wide pitch-out plays they were there before our backs.

Bernie Bierman, Minnesota—our defense was just too rugged for Ohio State. We got there too fast. Old professor — I take it your Gophers are pretty good, Mr. Bierman.

George "Lefty" James, Cornell — speaking of pretty good, professor, the Yale game was the best my team ever played. If we play like we did Saturday the rest of the season and any team beats us, we'll have no regrets.

"Everything Went Wrong"

Herman Hickman, Yale — Everything went wrong. We've got a long way to go. We met a superior force and were soundly defeated.

Old professor—you seem perturbed, Mr. Cravath.

Jeff Cravath, Southern California — I am, professor. The Bears out-blocked us and tackled better. What else can I say? I don't want to take anything away from California (except the victory) but I didn't like a certain decision made by one of the officials and I told the fellow about it. The loss of Bill Jessup was a hard blow.

Lynn Waldorf, California — that kickoff touchdown runback was a new play. We tried this run up the middle, instead of the sidelines, for the first time in practice last Friday. Had fine blocking and went all the way for the clinching points.

Old professor—Mr. Sauer, finish this sentence: What goes up must come down. George Sauer, Navy—come down, professor, and we did. We just weren't up for Wisconsin. Our defenses failed, and we weren't the same team we were a week ago. Statistics show we played a better game than the score indicated.

Wisconsin Got The Break

Ivy Williamson, Wisconsin — we were opportunists Saturday, professor. Capitalized on all our breaks. The game was much closer than the score indicates. Two pass interceptions early in the game put the pressure on Navy, and they lost confidence in their air attack.

Old professor—Mr. Graham, when you meet a car on the road what do you do?

Ralph Graham, Kansas State — you pass, professor, and Bill Weeks of Iowa State is the best passer in the Big Seven.

Emmett Stuber, Iowa State — the only thing I can say about that game is that we had the ball last. Ralph Graham was a mighty final ball club. Missouri's going to have to beat us when they come up here next week.

Old professor — I'm sorry Blair Cherry isn't with us today, but our time is up anyway. I trust you will be with us again next week, but if you come up with another Saturday such as the last I doubt if I will be with you. I just can't take it. You are excused, gentlemen.

Football Briefs

Irish Tackle, Casualty

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Tackle Ed Hudak, who suffered a slight shoulder separation, was the only Notre Dame casualty in the 47-6 Irish rout of Tulane last Saturday.

Trainer Hugh Burns said Hudak will be sidelined all week, but will be ready to practice for the navy game Oct. 29. Also expected to recuperate before the next Irish start is fullback Mike Swistowicz, who missed the Tulane game because of a leg infection.

Because of next Saturday's open date, the Irish varsity will skip practice for the next few days.

Wildcats See Movies

Evanston, Ill., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Coach Bob Voigts showed his Northwestern footballers movies of their 21-20 upset of Michigan last Saturday today then gave them the day off.

Voigts warned the Wildcats, however, he wants them to sharpen up on blocking and tackling for next Saturday's invasion of Iowa.

Illini Scrimmage

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Illinois opened preparations for Purdue with a long scrimmage today, marking the first Monday contact work after a game this season.

Coach Ray Eliot was dissatisfied with his team's tackling and blocking against Missouri and stressed both fundamentals.

The Illini came out of the Missouri game in good shape for the third straight week. Halfback Johnny Karras still must wear tennis shoes in practice because of a bruised heel.

MINE PAYROLL LOWEST SINCE '30's

West Frankfort, Ill., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Payrolls of West Frankfort mines were estimated as the lowest since the early 1930's. Five mines in the area normally have a two-week pay total of about $600,000, but the latest pay was reported at less than $100,000 due to work stoppages during contract talks.

Crimsons, Blueboys Play Here This Week; ISD Away, Routt Idle

Jacksonville football coaches, much more pleased with the work of their athletes during the past week-end, focused attention on the upcoming series which will see two grid clubs defend the home port on successive Friday and Saturday nights.

Of the four local squads in action last week, three were successful. One outfit, of necessity, missed the boat when I.S.D. and J.H.S. tangled in an intra-city mixed. Although Bob Kraushaar's Crimsons dropped a 14-13 struggle to Art Yates' westend gang, they provided a spine-tingling session for onlookers.

Paul Stroud's Routt Rockets bumped off Chandlerville 29-20 and the Blueboys of Al Miller raced to a 47-13 non-conference victory at Eureka College to wind up a banner-weekend for Jacksonville gridiron warriors.

Carlstedt Led Tigers

Irvin Carlstedt's sparkling line-play spear-headed the Tigers to their one-point margin over the Jacks. Carlstedt blocked a Crimson punt to set up his club's first touchdown mid-way through the second quarter. After the JHS gang had climbed back in the ball game 6-6 the third period, Carlstedt nabbed a ball-carrying opponent behind his own goal-line to score a safety and put I.S.D. out front 8-6.

Johnny Walker's passing gave the Crimsons a second touchdown in the last chapter, but I.S.D. had rallied for another score with Fullback Briggs ploughing through the J.H.S. line almost at will.

Routt's six-man conference leading Rockets almost walked into an upset at Chandlerville Thursday night. Jack Marcy—Comet quarter-back—sprung the trap when he tallied three touchdowns, pushing the Stroudmen to the limit. However, the rabbit-like Sonny Longman was in his usual scampering form and sparked the Routt gang to its fourth straight victory of the season. They are the only undefeated team in Jacksonville and in their conference.

Blueboys Win At Eureka

Al Miller doctored a battle-weary Illinois College eleven to a resounding 47-13 conquest at Eureka Saturday night. Ray Watts — rookie Blueboy halfback — gave the Hill-toppers cause for cheer after the North Central gloom when he racked up three touchdowns. One of his scores came on a 100-yard kick-off return. Miller reports that the blond youngster is fast and elusive, a combination hard to beat. Watts failed to live up to advance billing in earlier games, but is apparently rounding into shape as the season passes the halfway mark.

Back to local action for the coming weekend. The winless Jacksonville high eleven locks horns with Feisthans of Springfield in a Central conference bout Friday night. I.S.D., with a 2-2 mark, goes to Kincaid also on Friday night.

The I.C. Blueboys climax Saturday homecoming festivities this Saturday afternoon when they entertain McKendree college's footballers on the J.H.S. green. The Millermen currently boast a season's standing of two wins, one tie and one loss. Both wins have been chalked up on foreign fields while the tie and loss came in Jacksonville battles.

Paul Stroud's Rocket sextet is idle this week.

Passing Skill Spells Victory For Illinois Preps

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Forward passing skill clinched important weekend victories for several downstate Illinois prep football teams.

Crystal lake extended its perfect season chart through five games on a 20-yard scoring aerial, quarterback Jim Franz to end Cliff Jeners, only 30 seconds before the final gun. The last ditch touchdown beat Lake Forest, 12-6.

Similar heroics marked the 19-18 verdict of Newman, which trailed Cerro Gordo by two touchdowns going into the final period. With less than a minute left, quarterback Jim Drake chucked 15 yards to half-back Jim Ashby in the end zone for the points that spelled victory.

The fancy throwing of quarterback Max Hooper paid off for Mt. Vernon in a 14-8 conquest of West Frankfort. Hooper, pitching to assorted receivers, clicked on 11 of 16 attempts good for 101 yards. The first Mt. Vernon touchdown was set up by an aerial. Hooper flipped 16 yards to end John Riley for the second.

Another fine exhibition was turned in by halfback Bob Abbott, a sophomore lefty making his first appearance with the Decatur varsity. Abbott connected on six of his first seven throws, putting together four successive strikes in his team's only touchdown drive. Springfield won, 14-7.

Thirty Yankees Get Full Share Of Series Prize

Cincinnati, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Thirty members of the world champion New York Yankees got full shares of $5,665.54 each for defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers in the recent world series, it was announced today.

Walter Mulbry, secretary of baseball, released the names, along with those of 31 Brooklyn players who got $4,272.74 a piece.

The Yankees gave three players $4,249.16; four were voted $2,532.77; eight received $1,416.38; one athlete $1,500, and two members of the organization $350 apiece.

Two Brooklyn players were voted half-shares of $2,136.37 each, while another member of the organization got $712.12.

Johnny Mize, bought from New York of the National League near the end of the regular season, was voted a half share, amounting to $2,832.77. The big first baseman connected safely twice in pinch hit roles in the world series.

Fast Freight Is Stopped By Twins, Their Flashlights

Lincoln, Ill., Oct. 17.—(AP)—The kids hereabouts are still a little awed about Dean and Dale Grube, 11-year-old twins who stopped a fast freight train without half trying.

The boys, waiting at the Gulf Mobile and Ohio railroad station, for their mother, Mrs. Clara Grube, to arrive were amusing themselves one evening last week with new flashlights.

A heavy freight train came rumbling into town at a fast clip. As it neared the station, however, the air brakes clamped on and the train ground to a jolting, unscheduled stop.

The engineer explained he had seen the two lights circling on the station platform and thought they might be signals that danger lay ahead.

Personal Property Of Notables To Be Sold At Auction

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Personal property which includes articles once belonging to the William K. Vanderbilt and E. R. Bradley estate was auctioned today at the opening of a three-day sale of possessions of Mrs. Edward S. Moore, owner of Circle M farm.

The offerings, many of them antiques, included linens, china, guns and furniture purchased from the Vanderbilt estate and from the Bradley estate before the death of Moore in September, 1948. Fifteen oil paintings of Bradley's horses were sold.

Auctioneer R. L. Garland emphasized the farm was not to be sold. The property auctioned, he told the 200-300 persons attending, represented "overflow" after Mrs. Moore disposed of her Florida home and moved to the blue grass.

KROGER STORE ROBBED OF CIGARETTES

Trenton, Ill., Oct. 17.—(AP)—A Kroger store was robbed of cigarettes and some cash over the weekend—the second time in six weeks.

The store's manager, Ben Schoene, reported to police that cigarettes valued at $300 and $7 in cash were missing when he checked the store yesterday morning. The front door had been forced open, he said.

About $300 in cigarettes were taken six week ago.

Cops Stop Holdup; One Robber Shot

Chicago, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Police interrupted a clothing store holdup today, shot one negro and captured him and a companion.

Those arrested are Spencer Price, 19, who was wounded in the arm, and Wad Howard, 20.

They went into the S and G Style Shop at 206 East 43rd street and asked to see some clothing. The store owner Samuel London, 46, who was telephoning his wife, became suspicious and told her to call police.

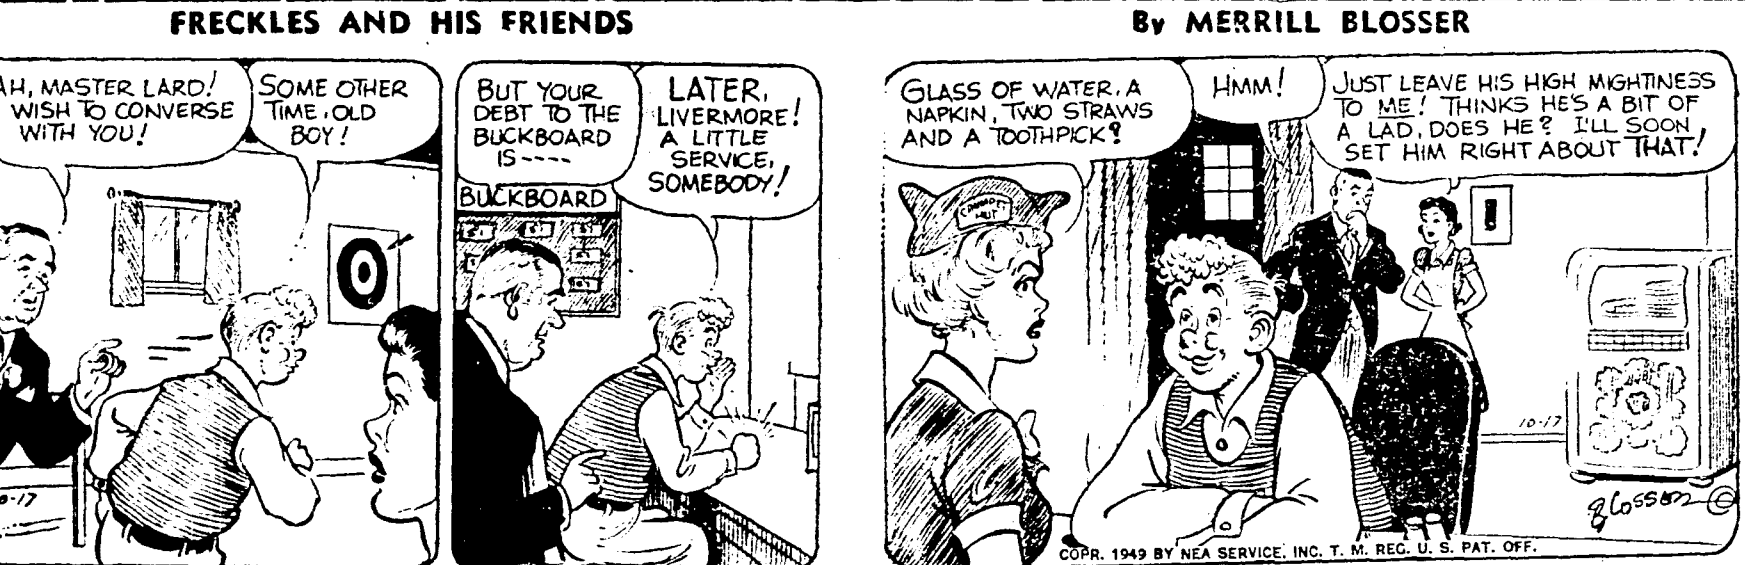

The men forced London to the rear of the store, demanded money and rifled the cash register. When three detectives entered, Price pointed a pistol at them. Officer Charles Younger fired and hit Price. Price and Howard were held without charge.

Someone to Love
By IRENE LONNEN ERNHART Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Jenny's marriage to Tod Duncan has been unhappy because Tod can't forget Liz Conover, who lived with him before his marriage and who now is trying to win Tod back. Liz invites Tod to a cocktail party given by her father's advertising firm. When he returns to his basement apartment he finds Rick Morris, an old friend, waiting. He remembers to apologize the next day for accusing Rick with being in love with Jenny and then tells Jenny he has been offered a very good position with the Conover firm. It will mean an end of skimping, he says.

XXV
THE write-up of the Conover party gave more space to Tod than it did to the guest of honor, it seemed to Jenny.

The pictures of Tod were extremely flattering—"Tod Duncan, winner All-American," and Liz was looking her usual perfect self, like something out of a fashion magazine.

Jenny didn't blame Tod for feeling badly after such an experience, and to have received Mr. Conover's job offer on top of it.

They began at once to look for a house. The bright young men at the Conover agency could not be in a musty basement in an obscure and slightly tawdry section of town. Tod would have chosen a house in some exclusive new development, but Jenny found one in a less pretentious suburban neighborhood, a modest colonial with an acre of ground and a small orchard.

It was wonderful to get the twins into the pink and white frescoes of a nursery all their own. Nice, too, to be able to buy the things he needed from Max, without being guilty.

Max was thinking of selling his shop. Business had declined some and he had always dreamed of having a trailer and going to Florida. Now seemed an opportune time. He suggested that Jenny go into partnership with Nina and take over the shop.

"But, Max, there's no need now for me to work with Tod's new job. Besides I haven't the money to invest in anything like that."

Max waved his hand and shrugged. "Borrow like I did."

"There's still Tod and the twins, my first and most important job."

Max turned away, lighting one of his long cigars. "If you change your mind," he broke off, shrugging again.

There was something vaguely puzzling to Jenny in Max's attitude, and in Nina's too. Nina had forgotten the quarrel and she warmly urged Jenny to do as Max suggested.

JENNY hired a girl to look after the twins while she shopped for furniture for the new house and conferred with a decorator. The furniture that had been her mother's looked out of place in the spanking newness of the house, and Tod wanted everything new. The bill for the furniture frightened her, but Tod waved it aside airily.

He'd have it paid off in no time once he got a few good accounts lined up. Besides the furniture was a good investment. He wanted to have a big housewarming and invite a lot of important people.

They scarcely had a moment to gather any more. Tod worked late quite often, and he was always having to see an important client out of office hours. He saw an awful lot of Liz too, openly under guise of business. But his openness did not prevent its being observed.

Maurice Cory's gossip column carried a small note. "Is there a marital rift in the offing for a certain prominent football player turned advertising genius? Or is it strictly business with that beautiful boss's daughter he's been squiring to cocktail parties?"

Jenny didn't mention it to Tod. But she wondered whether gossip about Liz and Tod had anything to do with Max's suggestion that she might change her mind about going into partnership with Nina. Then Tod one evening mentioned a new account he'd acquired for the firm only that day. "You see, Jenny, I told you it wouldn't take long to pay for the furniture. The commission on that single account will almost do it. If it hadn't been for Liz!"

"You see an awful lot of Liz, don't you?" Jenny said. She tried not to let that note of coolness creep into her voice.

"After all, Jenny," he burst out as he rose from his chair. "There isn't any way to avoid seeing a lot of Liz when we work in the same office. But think what it's meant to work there!"

Yes, she was thinking, it certainly had changed things. It was as though a magic wand had been waved over them. A month ago they had been lost in a welter of ever-mounting bills, and half crazy over the money situation. Funny how much money really meant.

Everyone was always saying, "Money can't buy everything," but that was silly, wasn't it? Because there were few worthwhile things that money couldn't buy.

It brought a comfortable place to live, and fresh air and sunshine and exquisite new outfits for the babies. You didn't have to shop around to save three cents on a dozen of oranges, or spend hours trying to save a few dollars making little overalls for the babies out of remnants you'd picked up in a basement somewhere.

THEN came the night of their housewarming. Jenny was uneasy because Rick was practically the only person present with whom she was acquainted, excepting Liz Conover, of course. She felt uncomfortable, because these people moved in a world she hadn't known.

Jenny and Rick slipped off upstairs to the nursery to look in on the twins. There was so much noise downstairs Jenny was afraid they might wake them. She and Rick were talking in whispers over the cribs in the nursery when they heard voices from across the hall. Jenny froze and Rick gripped her arm hard as they listened.

'Finish Up Streets' Is Council's Request To Loop Contractor

A speed-up of construction work on the loop paving project was urged by the city council last night, and the demand for more action will be renewed at a conference scheduled for 4 o'clock this afternoon between city officials and representatives of the Sangamo Construction Co., contractor of the job.

Councilmen said the contractor should make every effort possible toward completing some of the streets and opening them to traffic. They pointed out that some sections of streets have been paved, and could be opened soon if the curbs and sidewalks are laid promptly.

Alderman Chumley declared that some streets and alleys have been torn up for six weeks, and that businessmen and the public are experiencing hardships while the work is in progress. Curb and sidewalk work should be pushed to completion on sections where pavements have been laid, he said.

A conference at which the Board of Local Improvements will urge the construction company to finish up sections of the loop was announced by Mayor Hoagland, who said engineers and officials will get together with a view to accelerating activities.

"Certainly the time has arrived when some sections should be finished up and opened to traffic," the mayor said.

Alderman Haneline joined in urging completion of certain sections of the job. He said intersections in the loop should be kept in shape so that pedestrians can cross without undue hardship.

Part-Payment Authorize

Before engaging in the discussion about progress on the paving job, the council passed a resolution which provides for part-payment of the city's cost of the big project. City Attorney Fay read a resolution calling for the transfer of $120,617.29 from the motor fuel tax fund to the public benefit fund, and that the sum be further transferred to Special Assessment Account 240. The measure passed on motion of Alderman Haneline, seconded by Alderman Reid.

The $120,617.29 represents the first of six installments the city will pay as its share of the paving job. A special assessment of $206,205.29 was spread against the city in special assessments when the project was approved by the county court.

A resolution authorizing the city treasurer to make a payment of $348.95 from a special assessment fund to the general fund passed on motion of Alderman Chumley, seconded by Alderman Brune.

A balance of $7,508.94 in the general fund as of Sept. 30 was reported by City Treasurer Irma B. Cline. The city clerk's report was read by City Clerk Phillips.

More Meters Added

The extension of parking meters on business district streets was advocated by Alderman Chumley, who said he believed business men and the public would welcome more metered parking space. Mayor Hoagland said the suggestion would be kept in mind, and that some action might be taken soon after completion of the loop project.

Strict economy in all departments during the last three months of the year was urged by Alderman Haneline, chairman of the finance committee. It is generally understood that the city will finish the year with a deficit, but the finance chairman urged department heads to keep all expenditures at a minimum.

Alderman Kelly announced that he has conferred with Postmaster Ator regarding a curb mail box in front of the post office, by which motorists could mail letters without getting out of their cars. Kelly said that the post office will install a box of that kind within a short time. He also urged enforcement of the five minute parking limit in the vicinity of the post office.

A letter from the Wabash railroad concerning the city's request for flasher lights at the Howe street crossing was read by Attorney Fay. An official of the Wabash said that a history of the crossing does not show a need for flashers at that point. The letter contained a question as to whether the city would defray a substantial portion of expense if a flasher were installed.

Alderman Flynn, who first made the request for a warning signal at the Howe street crossing several weeks ago, said an automatic bell home, which would furnish some protection if district parliamentarian.

Other features of the program suggested that the city will be a book review by Mrs. G. S. Gilman before the Illinois Commerce Commission with a request for bells or other warning signals at all railroad crossings. After further discussion the matter was referred to the city attorney, who will ask the Walker.

Jersey Murder Suspect Rounded Up By Posse; Offered No Resistance

Dalhart, Tex., Oct. 17—(AP)—Leonard (Lucky) Hawkins, wanted for the slaying of a Boise City, Okla., man, was captured today in a clump of trees about 20 miles west of here.

The capture ended a manhunt that had been going on in Texas panhandle and parts of west Texas and Oklahoma since last Wednesday.

Hawkins, 34, is charged with murder in the fatal shooting of Alfred Clark, 23, of Boise City, Okla., whose body was found Wednesday near Jerseyville, Ill.

Hawkins offered no resistance. He was arrested by eight officers, who answered a call from a farm wife, who saw him near her home. He was brought to Dalhart for questioning.

Clark was lured from his job in Clayton, N. M., by a man who offered to split a set of world series tickets with him, if Clark would use his car for the trip to St. Louis, where they believed the series would be played.

Clark agreed. They left Clayton Oct. 3.

Junata Groves, 19, of Dalhart, tipped officers that Hawkins was in the Texas Panhandle. She said she had known the man in New Mexico and Montana and that she had been kidnapped in a car containing papers which identified it as Clark's.

The girl said she escaped at Vega, Tex., by hitting Hawkins on the head with a fire extinguisher.

Hawkins appeared Saturday in a Dalhart restaurant where the girl was eating breakfast. He was carrying a pistol.

She screamed and fled to the rear of the cafe, with Hawkins in pursuit. Cook Jack Woodruff tangled with Hawkins in the kitchen. Hawkins clouted the cook on the head with his fist and got away. The girl had escaped in the confusion.

Hawkins, a former minor league baseball player, appeared again last Saturday night at a Dalhart liquor store.

That was his last appearance until his arrest today.
